VERSE 1

G

D

A dead man beckons me from his dismal grave,

C

G

One which he dug for himself, (4 measures, 16 beats)

D

And begs that I come and join him there

C

G

Where I was once myself. (4 measures, 16 beats)

CHORUS

Em

I struggle at the familiar voice,

D

C

A tear drops from my eye;

G

D

It's almost as though I have no choice,

C

G

For if I go back, I die. (4 measures)

(Cont'd next)

VERSE 2

G                    D
Impossible it has been for me

C                    G
To convince him of the risen life; (4 measures)

My words fall on a dead man's ears

C                    G
And the result is only strife.

CHORUS

VERSE 3

G                    D
My life is in deepest turmoil,

C                    G
The bloodiest struggle I bear;

D
To Jesus alone I'll be loyal

C                    G
For He alone does care.

CHORUS

(Cont'd next)

VERSE 4

G            D
I must go on to greater things,

C            G
More noble, holy and pure;

D
Whatever the mysterious future brings,

C            G
In Christ my steps are sure.

CHORUS

VERSE 5

G            D
For me to live is Christ my King

C            G
And He is my Father new;

He wants me to live and reign with Him

C            G
And He alone is true.
