

JOB

Music & Lyrics by Victor N. Hafichuk

VERSE 1

C C<sup>7</sup>
There once was a man in the land of Uz;

F C C<sup>7</sup>
Perfect and upright was he;

F C Am
He offered sacrifices for himself and his sons

G C
And his daughters religiously.

VERSE 2

C C<sup>7</sup>
One day the Lord saw He had to break a man;

F C C<sup>7</sup>
He put the devil to the job you see.

F C Am
The devil took his goods but wasn't satisfied with that...

G C

He also took his family.

CHORUS

C<sup>7</sup> F C
And Job said, "Naked have I come from my mother's womb,

F C C<sup>7</sup>
Naked will I return;

F C Am
The Lord did give and the Lord takes away;

G C
Blessed be the Name of the Lord."

VERSE 3

C C<sup>7</sup>
Still the Lord saw He had to break a man;

F C C<sup>7</sup>
And all Job had left was his wife.

F C Am
The Lord sent the devil in to plaster Job with boils

G C
But told him to spare his life.

2ND CHORUS

C<sup>7</sup> F C
And Job said, "Shall we receive good at the hand of God,

F C C<sup>7</sup>
And shall we not receive evil too?

F C Am
Though He slay me, yet will I trust in Him,
