

Em

Take a look at the big dinosaur:

He didn't get too very far;

Am B⁷ Em D

Give an ear and hear the sparrows tell their story to you...

Em

To win a race there are a thousand in a throng

But only one of them is destined to be strong.

Am B⁷ Em D

Will you tell me nine hundred and ninety-nine are wrong?..

Em

Take a lesson from some of the grasses:

Look and see that they are eaten by asses

Am B⁷ Em D

But after asses go, the grasses stay behind to grow...

Em

You needn't live to others' expectations;

You'll give your heart too many palpitations.

Am B⁷ Em D

Do what you can for now and gently put the rest away...

Em

Take it easy, the night has a reason;

For everything there is a time and a season.
